

OTHM recognition and Articulation Agreement with
The London South Bank University.

To whom it may concern

The London South Bank University confirms that there exists an Articulation Agreement with OTHM [The Organisation for Tourism and Hospitality Management] with the following provisions.

Quality:

Q.1. That LSBU will sit as observers on the OTHM Examination Board to verify the content, level and standard of OTHM examination question papers.

Q.2 That LSBU will also be included in the verification and confirmation of OTHM examination results.

Recognition of OTHM qualifications:

R.1. That Holders of the OTHM Certificate are eligible to apply for entry to year one of the LSBU BA (Hons) Undergraduate Programme in Tourism and Hospitality.

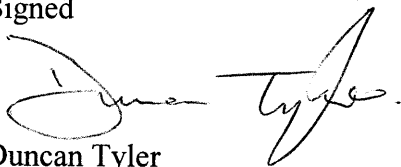

R.2. That holders of the OTHM Diploma, may apply for direct entry to year two of the LSBU BA (Hons) Undergraduate Programme in Tourism and Hospitality.

R.3. That holders of the OTHM Higher Diploma may apply for direct entry to the Final year of the LSBU BA (Hons) Undergraduate Programme in Tourism and Hospitality subject to the relevant level of work experience.

R.4. Exceptionally, subject to meeting APEL conditions students successfully completing the OTHM Diploma will be eligible to enter Level 3 of the LSBU BA (Hons) Undergraduate Programme in Tourism and Hospitality; and those with the OTHM Higher Diploma will exceptionally be eligible to enter the LSBU MSc International tourism Marketing.

London South Bank University has held awarding powers for taught and research degrees from the Privy Council since the passing of the Further and Higher Education Act in 1992.

Signed

Duncan Tyler
LSBU
Subject Leader Tourism and Hospitality

08.12.08

Dated

